Paskowitz & Associates Announces Class Action Suit on Behalf of Limelight Networks, Inc. Investors

NEW YORK, NY -- (MARKET WIRE) -- 08/13/07 -- Paskowitz & Associates has commenced a Class Action lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on behalf of a class (the "Class") of all persons who purchased or acquired securities of Limelight Networks, Inc. ("Limelight Networks" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: LLNW) between June 8, 2007 and August 8, 2007 (the "Class Period").

The Complaint alleges that defendants, including the Company's top executives and the co-lead underwriters of its IPO, negligently violated the federal securities laws by issuing a Prospectus in connection with its June 8, 2007 initial public offering ("IPO") that was materially misleading regarding adverse business events that were affecting the Company, including: (a) that revenues were suffering due to greater reliance on television-related sales, which are seasonal; and (b) that Limelight Networks was being forced to resort to deep discounting its services in order to attract and maintain customers for its premier services because of those customers' resistance to paying adequate prices, a development that will impact the Company's June 30, 2007 quarter, and will continue to adversely impact the Company going forward. When the truth about these matters was revealed, Limelight Networks shares dropped substantially.

If you purchased Limelight Networks stock or other securities during the Class Period, you may qualify to serve as Lead Plaintiff on behalf of the Class, which consists of all persons and entities who purchased Limelight Networks stock from June 8, 2007 through August 8, 2007. You are not required to have sold your Limelight Networks holdings in order to claim damages, or to serve in this role. This case will be prosecuted on a contingent fee basis. All motions for appointment as Lead Plaintiff must be filed within 60 days of this Notice. The case has been assigned to the Hon. Paul A. Crotty, and assigned Civil No. 07 CV 7205.

Paskowitz & Associates has many years of successful experience representing shareholders in securities fraud class actions. Our firm will answer all questions, and provide information, at no cost or obligation to you.
